

Assorted Polish (Females)

Breed Characteristics

Comb Type: V-shaped

Egg Color: White

Egg Size: Small

Production: Fair

Bird Size: 4-6 pounds

Broody: No

Hardiness: Poor in Cold

Personality: Docile – Quiet

They are known for their "hairdos"-- as they have mops of feathers on top of their heads. In some varieties, this crest of feather contrasts in color with the rest of the bird's plumage. five colors: white crested black, white crested blue, golden laced, silver laced, and buff laced. Please note: the color blue in all poultry does not breed true they can produce black and splash offspring as well as blue.