

Speckled Sussex (Female)

Breed Characteristics

Class:	English
Origin:	England
Comb Type:	Single Comb
Egg Color:	Brown
Egg Size:	Large
Production:	Very Good 4/week
Matures:	Moderately Early
Bird Size:	Heavy 7 - 9 lbs
Broody:	Yes
Hardiness:	Very Cold Hardy
Personality:	Calm

Sussex chickens are a heavy breed developed by the English more than a century ago. This variety is called speckled because of the white spangles on the ends of its otherwise dark mahogany colored feathers. This dual purpose breed lays light brown eggs.