

Black Australorp (Female)

Breed Characteristics

Origin:	Australia
Comb Type:	Single Comb
Egg Color:	Brown
Egg Size:	Large
Production:	Excellent 5+/week
Matures:	Early
Bird Size:	Heavy 7 - 8 lbs
Broody:	Yes
Hardiness:	Heat & Cold Hardy
Personality:	Quiet, docile

Black Australorp are a popular producer of large brown eggs and are known for their hardiness and persistence in laying - even in hot weather. When mature, these birds have glossy, all- black feathers that show a gorgeous green sheen. From the time these chicks hatch until they are fully grown, their feathers have white tips.